E. D. AKE, : : : : EDITOR.

Some of the days the past week have been as lovely and pleasant as the gentle springtime.

The Arcadia Valley Relief Society should have the cordial endorsement of all fair-minded citizens.

Every body is complaining that business is most unusually dull. Perhaps there will be "more doing" when the roads get better.

Roadrovers are to be elected in April. Let every district select a good man and let us try and improve the roads in Iron county.

Mr. J. H. Smith of Nashville, Tenn., spent Saturday and Sunday with his brother Mr. M. R. Smith of this city. —Farmington Times.

The demand for dwellings is far beyond the supply in this town, and it is growing daily. Here's an opportunity for the investor.

Now that we are to get a new depot we should not weary in well doing but make a supreme effort to have the fast trains stop at this station.

Will Thomas will open a grocery store in the building south of the Register office. He was in St. Louis the first of the week buying his opening stock.

It is said that extensive improvements will be made at Jefferson Barracks this summer. Perhaps a little of the money will drift to the rifle range.

Sheriff Polk has ten federal boarders. If it were not for the government boarders the jail here would almost be "a white elephant" on the Sheriff's hands.

There is a bill in the Missouri legislature to pension school teachers after twenty years' service. It has the hearty support of some of our local pedagogues.

John Schwab, Jr., last week left for St. Louis where we understand he has secured a position as conductor on one of the Missouri Pacific dining cars running out of St. Louis.

Mrs. J. W. Clarkson, who has been making this city her home for some time, left for Clark, La., this morning, where she will make her future home. —Popular Bluff Journal.

The Bootcher family will remove to the Warren Johnson farm, lately acquired by them, this week. The house has been repaired and put in good condition for their reception.

MARRIED—At the residence of John S. Conway, Ironton, Mo., Thursday January 22, 1903, Rev. John R. Siegler of Piedmont and Mary E. Lewis of Sabula. Rev. Geo. Steel officiating.

There was a rear-end collision between two freight trains at Des Arc Monday night about two o'clock. A caboose was badly demoralized and the track was blocked several hours in consequence.

Albertha, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Con. Kendall, died to-day at 11:35, at the age of about two and one-half years. Interment will probably be at Middlebrook to-morrow afternoon. —Bismarck Sun.

Goff Whitworth imparts the pleasing information to his old friends in Ironton and Iron county that he is pleasantly situated in St. Louis. He likes his position and thinks he will get along nicely.

A number of young folks of the Fort Hill Junior League were delightfully entertained Saturday afternoon by Miss Maud Langdon at her home. Various games were enjoyed and lunch was served at 3 o'clock.

Sid Belcher of Graniteville fell from a freight train at De Soto last Thursday night and had a very narrow escape from death. Nearly all the clothing was torn from his body and he was quite badly bruised.

It is said that the railroad company now intends trying to get enough water out of the springs at Arcadia to supply the tank, and if that proves a failure they will build a permanent tank at the creek near the bridge.

Will Effinger of East St. Louis, Ill., spent several days of last week with his parents in Pilot Knob. Will and his brother, Henry, are engaged in the candy and confectionery business in East St. Louis and are doing well.

Mrs. A. McGeehee gave a birthday party in honor of her niece, Blanche Evans, at the home of Mr. James Evans, Saturday afternoon. The afternoon was spent very enjoyably by all. At 2 o'clock a dainty lunch was served.

Rev. H. W. Todd, who many years ago was pastor of the Presbyterian church at this place died at his home in Vandalia, Illinois, last Friday. The deceased will be well remembered by the many of the older citizens of the Valley.

The speculator, the man who traffics in futures, horse raising, etc., is more numerous in the Valley these days than he ever has been heretofore in our history. It is just really surprising how many people are "risking their money."

Mr. McKee and family, of Iowa, are domiciled on the property formerly owned by the late Jos. Huff, Esq. Mr. McKee has established, or is about to establish, a goat ranch in the southern end of this county, and a consignment of Angora goats is expected to arrive within a few days.

Superintendent Smith was here again last Friday and said our new depot was going to be built without delay. He also vouchsafed the pleasing information that the new structure would be large and commodious and in every way adequate to the demands of the business done at this place.

Ferd. Immer, after spending several days with relatives at Pilot Knob returned to St. Louis Tuesday. Mr. Immer will leave in a few days for Marion, Kansas, where he expects to remain the balance of the winter. We are pleased to state that Ferd's health is much better than it has been.

Dr. B. H. Zwart, one of the old-time Ironton boys, who has been making his home in Kansas City for the past twenty years, thus kindly writes: "Geo. Schultz told me that you were the same as you had always been. May you remain so and when the Angel of Death calls may he find the Mr. Ake I hold in pleasant memory."

Robert Trauernicht resumed work at his prospect mine near town Monday and reports his prospects growing brighter each day. Mr. Trauernicht has done considerable work in this mine and has been rewarded by finding a quantity of lead ore of fine quality and he thinks that in the future he will make a rich strike here. —Ironton Gazette.

John McClure and Noah La Chance were brought here last Friday and arraigned before the U. S. Commissioner charged with having burglarized the post-office at Avon in St. Genevieve county on the night of December 26th. They pleaded guilty and were taken to the District court in St. Louis where they will likely be sentenced to the penitentiary.

I thank my Brother of the Clayton Argus for his kind words and desire to express my gratification his confidence begets: "We have received a copy of a neat little booklet entitled 'Ounacetee', a Legend of Sunset Mountain," by Eli D. Ake, of the IRON COUNTY REGISTER. We have not had time to peruse the volume as yet, but we are willing to take on trust anything from the pen of Dr. Ake."

Ironton hardly seems like Ironton without our old friend, Herman Davis rushing up and down the streets. For the first time in forty years and more he has been out of town for a solid month and his favorite haunts are pining over his absence. And he seems to be having such a fine time down by the "sad sea waves" that he can't find opportunity to write his old friends back home a single line.

Little Percy Mayor, who will be remembered by the citizens of Ironton who left here a year or more ago for Chicago, writes to some of his little friends here that he and his sister, Winnie, are alone in Chicago, and that they are living on $3.50 a week which he earns by working in a tin shop. Brave little fellow! He hasn't had a very happy childhood. May the future be more kind to him.

Wm. Blue and "Pop" Thomas were shot by Wm. Steffens, Jr., in Steffens' saloon in Graniteville, Tuesday afternoon. Blue had struck the elder Steffens when young Steffens pulled a gun and shot at Blue. The shooting of Thomas was accidental. Both men are seriously but not fatally injured. Blue was shot in the leg and Thomas in the shoulder. With attention they will soon be all right again.

A case of small-pox is reported out about the Catherine mines. A young man named George Fouse, who has been working at Bird's Point, is the one reported to have it. Dr. Pressnell saw the case and pronounced it the same disease that was called small-pox last year. The county authorities have quarantined the house and there is no danger of the disease spreading. —Fredericktown Democrat-News.

The train crews on all the roads west of the Mississippi have asked an increase of twenty per cent. in their pay. The railroads are not disposed to grant the increase, and it is said a big strike will likely be on in a few days. The Iron Mountain employees have not determined as yet what they will do, but it is understood that they are almost unanimously in favor of striking in case they don't get the advance.

The smallpox epidemic has taken another lease on life, and bursted forth this morning with renewed vigor. Dr. H. L. Johnson reports thirteen new cases to-day, making a total of seventy-three cases now in the city. It was thought by the health authorities a few days ago that they had about throttled the disease, but it now looks as though we were going to be annoyed by its presence for the remainder of the winter. —Popular Bluff Republican.

The REGISTER respectfully inquires how long a dog must lie dead in the streets of Arcadia before the carcass is considered ripe for burial?

The sidewalks on the square north of the Old Bellows building—on both sides of Main street—are sadly out of repair. After a smart shower the untidy night traveler encounters miniature lakes and splashes shoe-mouth deep into them ere he is aware of it. This is embarrassing at this season of pneumonia and colds, and cuss words, if nothing more evil, are apt to result. A few loads of gravel would obviate all this. Will not the city authorities see that the remedy be applied?

Wm. Trauernicht, the Middlebrook tailor, was in Farmington the first of the week as a witness in the case of the State vs. John Horned for stealing a suit of clothes from the Flat River depot last summer. Mr. Trauernicht made the clothes and they were in transit to John Ghoul when stolen. His Bismarck investments, he tells us, are proving to be good ones. From Farmington he went to St. Louis to attend his son, Dr. Fred, who is seriously ill of typhoid fever. —Farmington News.

Sheriff Polk and Constable Marshall went to Annapolis Wednesday, and that day brought to Ironton the wife of August Johnson. Mrs. Johnson but a few days ago returned from the asylum at Fulton, where she had been confined for several months. Tuesday, however, word was received that she was in a very bad condition and it was deemed best to take the unfortunate woman in charge again. What will be done with her will be determined by the County Court next week.

The Citizen learned from reliable authority to-day that the Iron Mountain freight division will be moved from this place to Hoxie the 15th of next month. The move will affect this place but slightly, for very few of the railroad men whom the change will affect live here. The locals will run from this place just the same, so none of the offices will be moved. The passenger division will remain unchanged. In return for the change four or five operators for a dispatchers' office will be located here. The Y. M. C. A. will suffer the most from the move. Economic conditions are what caused the change. —Popular Bluff Citizen.

I am at a loss for fitting terms in which to announce the presentation by the fair hands of Mrs. T. F. Walsh, of Graniteville, of a cake—and such a cake!—to my humble self. My halting Faber shall not attempt a delineation of the gift—its excellence, its component parts, and the perfection of its construction—but I do beg the favor of making grateful, if not adequate, acknowledgment of the favor. I appreciate this evidence of goodwill on the part of a lady whose rare intellectual attainments are unquestioned, and whose graces of head and heart endear her to all who know her. May the recipient ever live in the esteem of Mrs. W. and her "worse half!"

Word reached here Monday of the shooting of James Thurman (white) by An. Clark (colored) in Greenwood Valley, about three miles west of Leeper. The trouble arose over the possession of a piece of land. Clark had possession last year but hadn't got his corn all gathered yet. Thurman had rented the ground this year and proceeded to turn his stock in. Clark remonstrated with Thurman but to no avail. Monday morning as Thurman was turning his mules in Clark shot him down. He lived about four minutes. Clark left immediately and has not been located. Clark is a brother of Morg. Clark of this place. —Piedmont Banner.

The negro was hanged by a mob Wednesday night. The end of "one more unfortunate" is recorded in Monday's St. Louis papers. We take from the Republic: "A Coroner's inquest will be held to-day on the body of Amanda Gendt, who committed suicide at the Lindell Hotel Saturday night by taking morphine. The body is at the morgue. There it was seen last night by Fred Hance of Morrison, Mo., a relative. Hance says the girl, who was 21 years old, was the daughter of Julius Gendt, a prominent farmer living at Fredericktown, eight miles from Morrison. He says the girl left home about three years ago for St. Louis. She has been engaged in domestic work at No. 4334 Morgan street, the home of H. C. Geckle. When she left the Geckle home Saturday she stated that she was going to visit an aunt on Chouteau avenue. She was next heard of at the Lindell Hotel, where she was found dying from morphine poisoning about 10:30 Saturday night. Among those who called at the morgue yesterday to see the dead girl were two chambermaids at the Lindell Hotel, who informed Morgue Superintendent Cowie that one of the day clerks at the hotel was a friend of the girl, and had received letters from her, in which she spoke of being mistreated, and said she would come to the hotel and commit suicide to spite him. None of the clerks at the hotel acknowledge her acquaintance, and declare that this information is unfounded. The father and two brothers of the dead girl are expected in the city to-day."

Don't forget to visit Mrs. Gross and see the new spring samples of the Buckley Shirt Waist Company.

Arcadia Valley Relief Society.

The above Society solicits the support of all citizens of Ironton, Pilot Knob and Arcadia, so that it may bring relief to those in need. Contributions of not more than fifty cents are asked from all, this to be given monthly and collected by a duly accredited representative of the society. Regularity in giving is the one and only requisite necessary to make the success of the society assured. Also the importance of all citizens to refer all cases of want and destitution to the society must be recognized, for one can readily see that if the source of supply is confined to one channel, those who need help must apply for relief to this society. The co-operation of all citizens is needed by active as well as passive assent, and if this is freely given the good that can be accomplished will be much. Men to-day in many instances loose their positions through no fault of their own; in such cases this society will try as far as is in its power to secure work for those deserving aid in this way.

Many men when offered help prefer to give in exchange their labor. Opportunities to apply their labor in good ways will ultimately be established, as for example, a wood yard, where men by cutting and splitting wood for sale can receive remuneration for their labor. It can be readily seen that this society has a right to exist, and ought to call on the people of Arcadia, Ironton and Pilot Knob for their assistance, and it is hoped this right to live and let live will be recognized by all. This movement has the endorsement of prominent citizens and needs but the good will of every one to assure success. The persons to make application for aid to, until further notice, are Mrs. Bond, Mrs. Ake, Mr. Richey, Mr. Lopez.

Mrs. R. M. Leslie Passes Away.

After an illness extending over the period of more than a month, Mrs. Leslie, the wife of Dr. Robert M. Leslie, died at Columbus hospital about 3:15 o'clock yesterday morning. During the first two weeks of her illness no great fear that she would not recover was entertained by her relatives, and it was only during the last few days that it became apparent to those who had watched over her that she could not long survive. On Sunday it became noticeable that she was rapidly declining, and the nearer of her relatives were summoned to her bedside. The end came peacefully yesterday morning.

Mrs. Leslie was a native of Missouri, having been born at Ironton, October 9, 1874. She was the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Fairchild, both of whom survive her and reside at the family home in Missouri. Living there, also, are two younger sisters and a brother. She was married to Dr. Leslie at Livingston, Mont., April 3, 1899, and removed from that place to Great Falls with her husband about two years ago.

Those of the immediate family who were called to this city on account of the illness of Mrs. Leslie, and who are still here, are Mrs. Walter Shobe, a sister to Dr. Leslie, and ex-Governor Preston H. Leslie, his father. It will be impossible for any of the direct relatives of Mrs. Leslie to reach here in time for the funeral, which will take place from the family residence this afternoon at 2 o'clock. The services will be conducted by the Rev. F. A. Agar, pastor of the First Baptist church. Interment will be made in Highland cemetery.

As a mark of respect for Mrs. Leslie and the bereaved family, business at the court house will be suspended this afternoon from 2 until 4 o'clock.

Mrs. Leslie was a most estimable woman, and by her many graces won the friendship and esteem of all with whom she came in contact. Her untimely demise will be mourned by a host of friends who will cherish her memory despite the flight of years. While she was not a woman who courted prominence, her individuality was of that charming character that she was sought in nearly all social circles. Her home life was marked for its calm and her presence made her hearthstone ideal. —Great Falls (Mont.) Tribune, Jan. 16.

The M. M. Club.

The first regular meeting of the M. M. Club will be held Thursday night at 7:30 o'clock at the house of the president, Miss Oka Mullen. Miss Mamie Roehry is vice-president and Miss Jennie Snyder, secretary and treasurer. It is a subject for congratulation that this society of young people has been formed and we cannot but wish them well. There is a sad deficiency in the social life of Ironton, and the young people cannot be better employed than in arranging series of amusements for each other. The old time prejudice against innocent enjoyments is now passing away, and here in Ironton may be seen the breaking of a new day. The day of freedom and a new life in all things. X.

Reduction sale, Bonanza.

Des Are Items.

The County Court sent the surveyor here to open up the streets in Des Arc. Some one had reported that the streets were blocked with logs, lumber and hub timber. When the overseer came around to open the streets or road, he found that the town was incorporated and the court had no jurisdiction. So for the present the road business is knocked out. I think it was more spite work than anything else. We have managed to get along here for thirty years with the present roads, and I think we can stand it a while longer.

Bud Ruble killed a large hawk on his farm sometime ago and it had a steel trap fastened to its leg. It had been caught in this trap some time before. The trap had a stout chain fastened to it.

Wm. Stevenson is still on the mend. I was at Annapolis one day last week, and while in the store formerly owned by the Clarksons I was reminded so much of the by-gone days. I could not help thinking how many pleasant moments I had spent there with K. A. Clarkson and his family. Time makes many changes, and soon we will also pass over the River of Time.

It is reported that Miss Mollie Brewington took the train last Sunday for St. Louis to marry Mr. Ed. Jones of Brunot. We wish them much joy.

Bro. Bowman filled his regular appointment here Sunday. I never go into a home but what I see a motto over the door, in red letters, "What is Home Without a Mother?" but you never see "What is Home Without a Dad." He is the one that gets up first in the morning, makes the fires, grinds the coffee and very often eats a cold breakfast before the mother is out of bed. He pays the butcher, the grocer, the milkman and baker, and if there is a noise down stairs he has to go down and kill the burglar, no matter what the consequences may be; so what is home without a dad?

Horace Morris made a visit to Farmington and the lead mines last week. He is much pleased with that town.

John Bowles, formerly of this neighborhood, lost one of his boys, Oscar, last week in Texas. He was 24 years old.

Rev. T. A. Bowman preached a splendid sermon here Sunday. His text was from the 9th chapter of Hebrews. Bro. Bowman is the best preacher our church has ever had and we did well when we employed him for our pastor. The service opened with that good old song "Rock of Ages." I heard that hymn forty-eight years ago, when I was only 12 years old, at the dedication of a Baptist church in Virginia. It fills my soul with joy to hear it. God grant that I may live up to the sentiments of this song.

Engine 1236 passed here yesterday for the first time in three months. This locomotive crushed the life out of poor Carl Benson, a boy whom everybody loved and respected.

There was a tail-end collision here on the main track last night. The caboose was knocked off the track and torn up, but no other cars were hurt.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lewis' baby was buried at the cemetery Monday evening. It was ten months old. The father and mother have the sympathy of their many friends at this place.

Mrs. W. E. McKee and daughter and Miss Anna Morris are visiting in Mill Spring this week.

E. W. Graves made a visit to Keener Sunday.

Dr. N. A. Farr made a flying trip to Piedmont Monday night.

Miss Mary Steel visited friends in Annapolis Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Allie Filz and sister, Mrs. Berryman, are visiting in Piedmont this week.

C. L. Williams went to Piedmont, Keener and Williamsville last week on business.

Mrs. Edmonds, of Belleview, is visiting her brother, P. D. Hartman, of this place. ISAAC.

Prices on Dry Salt and Smoked Meats greatly reduced at H. Barnhouse's.
